

NEWS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

Contact: Maria DeArros
Director of Operations
240.361.9231
mdearros@center4oe.com

COE HELPS MAKE THE HOLIDAY SPECIAL FOR FAMILIES AT MARTHA'S TABLE

Rockville, Md. (January 7, 2010) – The Center for Organizational Excellence, Inc. (COE) announced today that it held a food drive to support Martha's Table. "The holiday season is not only a great time to come together; it is also a great opportunity to give back," said Marcy Kozar, a COE Accounting Administrator. This was the motivating idea that inspired the drive. During our Holiday celebration, COE asked each employee to contribute by providing a donation of food as the "price of admission" to the event. COE employees were excited and eager to help, which made the food drive a success. During this season COE collected enough food to feed many needy families.

About Martha's Table

Martha's Table is a non-profit organization located in Northwest Washington, DC that aims to help at-risk residents improve their lives. During their Food Program in 2008, Martha's Table reportedly served 580,903 meals and snacks. COE wanted to help them reach even more families in the coming year. "It felt great to come together and work as a team to help our community," said Rebecca McMinn, COE Human Resource Specialist. The same sentiments were expressed by many, if not all of the party-goers.

About COE

For over 25 years, COE has been helping clients improve their organizational performance through organizational effectiveness, human capital strategy and enterprise system development and implementation support. Headquartered in the Washington, DC area, these services are provided through our Consulting Solutions and Technology Solutions groups. For more information on COE, visit www.center4oe.com.