COE WELCOMES JOAN SHERMAN AS SENIOR CONSULTANT

Rockville, Md. (March 23, 2010) – The Center for Organizational Excellence (COE) announced today that Joan Sherman has joined the firm as a Senior Consultant in the Consulting Solutions group. “We are excited to add Joan to our team. Joan brings powerful business acumen and private sector experience that will add great value to our team,” said Connie Freeman, President of COE. “Joan’s diverse skill set will enable her to consult on a wide variety of client engagements.”

Joan has extensive experience as a leader and consultant with companies including Marsh and McLennan, United Healthcare, Wachovia and Clements International. She has implemented business process improvement and organization design initiatives, designed and managed training, led teams, developed sales strategies, and managed large-scale change management projects, among other experiences.

Joan will initially be assigned to the Federal Employee Worksite Health and Wellness Initiative, providing Project Management Office support, and change management and communications consulting to the client.

Joan holds a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Ithaca College in New York, and a Post Graduate Certificate in Organization Development from Georgetown University.
